

Rama Avatar

The Ideal King

Rama Avatar is the seventh amongst the Dashavtars.

In Tretayuga, four powerful sons were born to king Dasharath.
Their names were Rama, Laxman Bharat and Shatrughna.

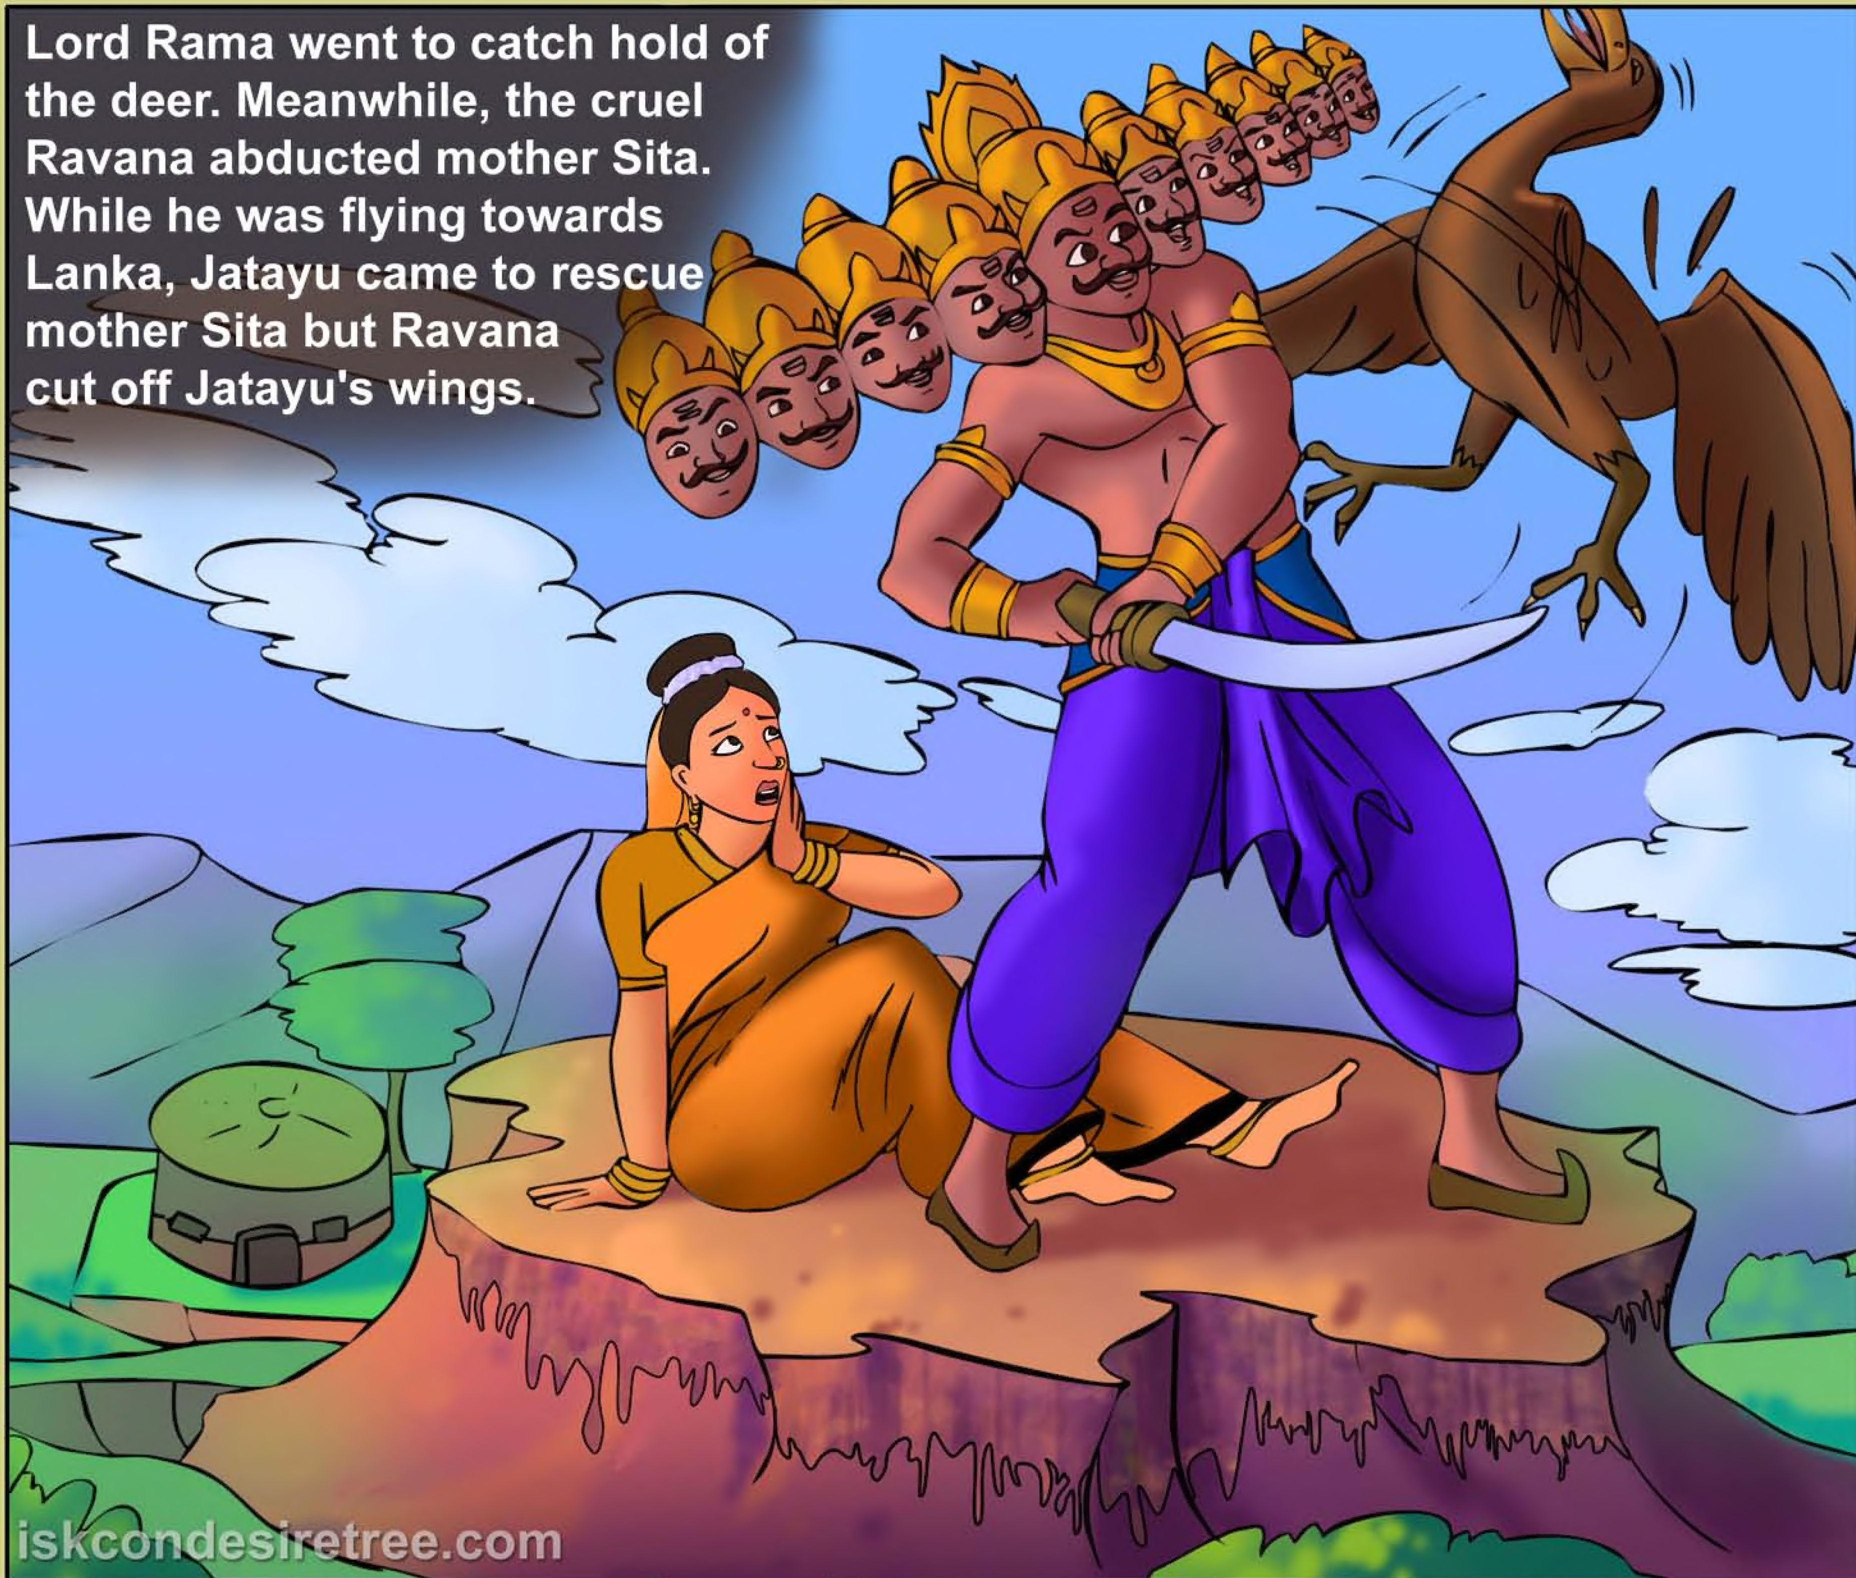

In the Svayamvar ceremony of Sita, Lord Rama lifted up the mighty bow, which none could even move and thus He won Sita's hand in marriage.

Lord Rama's step mother Kaikeyi banished Lord Rama from the kingdom as she wanted her son Bharat to become the king. She ordered them to spend 14 years in exile. King Dasharath was greatly saddened on hearing the venomous words of queen Kaikeyi.

During her stay in the forest, mother Sita got attracted to a golden deer that was sent by Ravana. She requested Lord Rama to catch the deer and bring it to her.

Lord Rama went to catch hold of the deer. Meanwhile, the cruel Ravana abducted mother Sita. While he was flying towards Lanka, Jatayu came to rescue mother Sita but Ravana cut off Jatayu's wings.

A mighty bridge was then built to cross the ocean and reach Lanka where Ravana held mother Sita as captive.

Lord Rama then reached Lanka with his monkey soldiers and killed the ten-headed Ravana.

After killing Ravana, Lord Rama along with mother Sita and others returned to Ayodhya. Lord Rama was then coronated as the king of Ayodhya.
